Claim of German Victory Probably Was Premature

ALLIES MAKE EXTENSIVE GAINS, BUT NO DECISIVE ACHIEVEMENTS CLAIMED

PARIS, DEC. 21.—THE ALLIES' ARTILLERY IS NOW WITHIN RANGE OF REVLEERS AND THE CITY IS BEING BOMBARDED. A SUPREME EFFORT IS BEING MADE ALONG THE YPRES-WERVICK LINE TO GET LONG-RANGE GUNS THROUGH SWAMPS WITHIN RANGE OF COURTRAI. THE GREAT BATTLE OF THE IASNE, BEGUN ON SEPTEMBER 12, HAS PROGRESSED 100 DAYS, AND IS NOW RAGING ON FRENCH, GERMAN AND BELGIAN SOIL.

WHILE THE ALLIES HAVE MADE GOOD GAINS ALONG THE 300-MILE BATTLE FRONT, AT NO PLACE HAS OUR OFFENSIVE RESULTED IN DECISIVE ACHIEVEMENT. THE REPORT THAT THE ALLIES HAVE CAPTURED MIDDELKERKE IS YET UNSUBSTANTIATED.

IN THE WOEVRE DISTRICT, IN THE VOSGES, IN ALSACE, AND ALONG THE MEUSE HEIGHTS THE FRENCH CONTINUE TO KEEP THE GERMANS ENGAGED OVER AN EXTENDED FRONT.

PARIS, DEC. 21 (Official).—THE ASSAULT MAINTAINED IN FLANDERS IS RESULTING IN FURTHER GAINS. THE FIRST LINE OF GERMAN TRENCHES SOUTHWEST OF LOOS, IN THE FRENCH DEPARTMENT OF NORD, HAS BEEN CAPTURED.

THE GERMANS ARE ACCUSED OF BOMBARDING THE HOSPITAL AT YPRES. THEY ARE ALSO SHELLING ARRAS.

GERMAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.
BERLIN, Dec. 21 (Via wireless).—Counter attacks by the Germans against the Allies in Flanders and in France are achieving results, according to an official statement made this afternoon. French attacks at Nieuport and along the canal and at Labassee have been repulsed. Trenches lost to the Allies near Notre Dame de Lorette have been recaptured.

SUPREME COURT OF U. S. DECIDES AGAINST THAW

WASHINGTON, DEC. 21.—THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT TODAY DECIDED THAT HARRY K. THAW, WHO ESCAPED FROM MATTEWAN ASYLUM FOR INSANE CRIMINALS IN 1913, CAN BE LEGALLY EXTRADITED FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE TO NEW YORK, TO ANSWER AN INDICTMENT FOR CONSPIRACY. THAW HAS BEEN A PRISONER, TECHNICALLY SO AT LEAST, FOR MANY MONTHS IN A NEW HAMPSHIRE TOWN.

OVER 2,000 MEN LOST WHEN CRUISERS SANK.
MONTEVIDEO, Dec. 21.—Details of the naval battle, which resulted in the sinking of four German warships, given by the officers of the British cruiser, Incincible, show that 2,019 officers and men lost their lives and that 130 were rescued.

BIG SLEET IN EASTERN STATES.
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Heavy sleet in New York and Pennsylvania has demoralized train and wire service.

PETROGRAD SAYS CZAR HAS CHECKED KAISER'S PROGRESS IN POLAND

PETROGRAD, DEC. 21.—GREAT GERMAN GUNS ARE TRYING TO BATTER A WAY THROUGH THE RUSSIAN DEFENSIVE WEST OF WARSAW, AND THE CANNONADING IS HEARD IN THE CITY.

IT IS OFFICIALLY ASSERTED THAT THE GERMAN ADVANCE TOWARD WARSAW HAS BEEN SO SERIOUSLY CHECKED THAT IT CANNOT BE RESUMED FOR SOME TIME.

GERMAN AVIATORS AND ZEPPELINS HAVE DROPPED BOMBS THREE TIMES WITHIN A WEEK OVER WARSAW, KILLING 42 PERSONS AND INJURING MANY OTHERS. FOOD SUPPLIES ARE RUNNING SHORT IN THE CITY.

IT IS ADMITTED TODAY THAT THE RUSSIANS HAVE EVACUATED LOWICZ.

GERMANS PENETRATE 30 MILES.
BERLIN, Dec. 21.—The capture of Skierniewice, a railroad center of Poland, by the Germans was reported in a Breslau dispatch received today. This shows that the kaiser's forces have advanced 30 miles from Lowicz.

MILLION BALES INCREASE.

SPITZER & CO. TAKES UP $25,000.00 OF SEWERAGE BONDS

BIDS FOR BALANCE OF ISSUE AMOUNTING TO $150,000 TO BE OPENED ON JANUARY 21ST AT 3:00 O'CLOCK.

The board of public works of the city of Daytona has received from Sidney Spitzer & Co., of Toledo, Ohio, $25,000 in payment for the sewerage and drainage bonds taken by that firm. Originally Spitzer & Co. bought $125,000 of the issue at a price equivalent to 95 cents on the dollar, and placed on deposit $25,000 with the board of public works. When the European war broke out and the bond market became tense, Spitzer & Co. raised objections to various phases of the bonds, and especially the non-delivery of the parchments at the time specified. Finally, rather than forfeit the deposit, the bond issue offered as a compromise to take $50,000 of the issue. Later Spitzer & Co. changed their minds and would take only $25,000 of the bond issue, and Saturday wired the Merchants bank that the money had been deposited in New York to the credit of the board of public works. The city council has advanced the board of public works in the neighborhood of $4,000 to meet preliminary expenses incident to the bond issue, and this amount will now be repaid into the general exchequer of the city.

The board of public works is now calling for sealed bids on the remaining $100,000 of the bond issue, the bids to be opened January 21st at 3:00 p. m.

VIOLATION OF SIGN ORDINANCE COST CAMPAGNI TEN DOLLARS
For suspending an electric sign over the sidewalk in front of his barber shop on Orange avenue Matthew Campagni was fined $10.00 in mayor's court Monday morning. Mr. Campagni pleaded not guilty to the charge, but Acting Mayor Schmidt evidently thought otherwise. Evidence was introduced showing that the accused man had been warned by the police concerning the sign and that he did not heed the warning—at least not in time to avoid trouble.

MAYOR TITUS WILL LIGHT ESPLANADE BURGEOYNE TONIGHT

CITY'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE WILL CONNECT WHITE WAY WITH CIRCUIT OF THE CRESCENT THEATER.

If plans do not miscarry the Esplanade Burgoyne will be lighted tonight from one end to the other. Mayor Henry T. Titus, owner of the Crescent theater, has a force of electricians at work connecting the white way with the circuit of the Crescent, and the city's chief executive plans to light the esplanade at his own expense tonight, at least. Mayor Titus says the big cluster lights will burn until tomorrow morning if no short circuit or other unforeseen contingency occurs.

As a consequence of lighting the esplanade, the Crescent will be dark tonight.

AMUSEMENT TRIUMPH TO OPEN JANUARY 2

NEW NAUTILUS CASINO TO BE

THE CENTER OF SOCIAL AC-

TIVITY FOR COMING SEASON.

OPENS JANUARY 2ND.

Of the many enterprises organized and fostered by Michael Sholtz, none is more progressive or will add more in the further development of Daytona as a resort city than the new Nautil-lus casino, located just north of the Clarendon hotel.

Mr. Sholtz's idea has been to make this place the center of social gaiety and recreation, and to this end he has expended thousands of dollars to provide means for the amusement and benefit of all classes, young and old alike.

The Nautilus is now about completed and will open formally on Saturday, January 2nd. Its construction includes some novel and interesting features that will be of interest to all.

First and foremost is the bathing pavilion, extending for 200 feet in the rear of the main casino building. The visitor first enters a large foyer where reading tables and easy chairs invite comfort. Extending for 100 feet down this immense room is the large salt water swimming pool, the largest of its kind in Florida. Salt water fresh from the ocean and warmed in a giant boiler constantly flows into this pool, maintaining its perfect cleanliness,
and the water is kept continually at 70 degrees Fahrenheit. A springboard is provided for diving and the depth is graduated from breast high at one end to deep water in the other end of the pool.

Adjoining the salt water pool is the fresh water tank, also maintained comfortably warm and bath pools are in charge of an expert swimming instructor. No better place than this could be found to learn the art of swimming and diving. Comfortable dressing rooms for ladies and gentlemen afford every convenience, and young and old of both sexes will find this a most pleasant and refined place of amusement and recreation. Doubtless swimming parties will be the popular thing this winter in Daytona, regardless of weather.

The casino itself is an immense affair. At the front is the palm garden artistically decorated in tropical effects and here are numerous tables, where delightful lunches will be served or service given for ladies' afternoon tea parties.

Extending from the palm garden is the spacious dance floor, at one end of which the Nautilus ladies' orchestra will discourse sweet music every afternoon and evening with concerts on Sunday.

The Nautilus adjoins the golf links
and doubtless will be golf headquarters for the season. Golf clubs and coats can be left in safe keeping at the casino and caddies provided for golfers.

On the beach in front of the casino is the new launch of Ruth Bancroft Law, the famous lady aviator, who will give exhibition flights daily in her Wright
biplane.

Just north of the casino is being constructed the National League baseball diamond where the Superbas will train this winter, and where important practice games will be played with other National League teams.

Other forms of recreation will be provided and altogether the Nautilus offers the most superb variety of high class amusement to be found anywhere in the south.

C. Winton Lansing of New York has been engaged as director of the Nautil-lus and is already in town. Mr.
Lansing is a well-known society man and has been in charge of social entertainment at Battery Park, Asheville, N. C., and other resorts. He has been prominent in athletics and as a captain leader, and the owners are fortunate in securing his services.

LITTLE GIRLS NEEDN'T WORRY ABOUT DOLLS

AMERICANS MAKING MILLIONS OF FEET OF LUMBER INTO TOYS—U. S. TO DOMINATE THE MARKET FOR YEARS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—While there won't be so many of those rosy-checked French dolls, nor so many of those wonderful wooden animals the Germans make, there will be lots of Christmas toys for the kiddies this year just the same.

Several manufacturers in the United States are turning out dolls by the thousands, and they are of the very best type. One large manufacturer in an eastern state is making an indestructible doll from basswood. There's nothing for the little girls to worry about.

For the little boys, the following toys are now being made in this country from American woods: Animals, blocks, boats, cannon, forts, etc. For kiddies in general there will be: Children's chairs, circus sets, doll furniture, games, Christmas tree holders, swing jumpers, children's pianos, pastry sets, babies' play-yards, shooting galleries, hobby horses, pop guns, wagons, autos and wheelbarrows.

Basswood is the principal material for wooden toys as well as for wooden parts of metal toys. It is light and not likely to split or break.

The basswood doll in particular is unique and ingenious. All parts of it are made of wood, and are artistically carved and enameled in color.

It is difficult to tell that these dolls are made of wood, so skillfully are they finished. The various parts of the bodies are joined with steel bands, giving them great flexibility and freedom of movement.

Next to basswood, sugar maple, beech, birch and white pine are the principal woods used for toys. Elm, oak, chestnut, ash, yellow poplar and other woods are also in demand.

The total amount of wood used annually in the United States is nearly 25,000,000 feet, and the leading toy manufacturing states are in order—Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Maine, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Thus it may be seen that the United States has a good start in the toy industry, and with such a start and with the European toy production demoralized there is every reason to believe that our toy manufacturers are destined to dominate the toy market for years to come.

SHINING SOL SAVED DAYTONA'S GOAT

OHIO MAN WAS ABOUT TO LEAVE FOR MORE SALUBRIOUS CLIMATE—HAS NOW DECIDED TO REMAIN.

Just because Old Sol shone forth from behind its lining today, John G. Muth and family, of Bellaire, Ohio, will spend most of the season in Daytona. The Muth family came here several days ago, it being their first trip to Florida. They struck the most abominable weather Florida has experienced in years and had made up their minds to leave this evening for points further down the coast and if better weather was not encountered southward the Muth family was determined to hedge along the gulf coast and finally land in Arizona, where the skies are always reputed to be clear.

With the sun shining Florida looks different to Mr. Muth and his family and they will remain.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR PROMINENT CITIZEN

PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS CHARGED WITH VIOLATING ORDINANCE REGULATING PLACING OF SIGNS.

A warrant, in which he is charged with violating the ordinance prohibiting the placing of signs over sidewalks in the city of Daytona, has been sworn out for Joseph Osborne, president of the board of public works. The alleged offending sign is in front of Mr. Osborne's plumbing establishment at number 13 Orange avenue.

Owing to the fact that he left the city early Monday morning, Mr. Osborne has not been "apprehended" and "arrested," but when he returns from his business trip to Port Orange he will be cited to appear in mayor's court and stand trial before Acting Mayor Schmidt. It is understood that the accused gentleman will contest the accusation.

*Tonight—"The Aztec Treasure," 2 reels; "Cannon's Wash Day," comedy, 4 reels, daily. Arcade theater.

GRIMES' DISORDERLY BEHAVIOR BROUGHT HIM TO GRIEF

When it was established in the municipal court Monday morning that Herman Grimes had been disorderly in an unlawful and peace-disturbing manner, his honor, Acting Mayor Henry Schmidt, smiled engagingly and said: "Herman, you will kindly replenish the municipal exchequer to the extent of five good simoleons of American coinage. Add thereto another dollar for good measure and to pay part of the cost of this prosecution. Good-bye, Herman."

QUALITY SHOP OPENS FOR WINTER SEASON

Samuel Goldman, from the north, has joined his brother Nathan here, and will assist in conducting the Quality Shop, Arcade building, during the winter. The store was formally opened for business on Saturday with the announcement of a sale of suits, coats and dresses, but owing to bad weather the results were not entirely satisfactory. For this reason the sale will continue until Christmas so that persons desiring to take advantage of the low prices may do so. The Quality Shop will remain open evenings until 8:30 o'clock.

Material for Hash.

Sir George Warrender, who was once obliged to put off a dinner party in consequence of the death of a relative, and sat down to a haunch of venison by himself, said to the butler while eating: "John, this will make capital hash tomorrow." "Yes, Sir George," replied the servant, "if you leave off now."

Mineral Water Imports.

This country imports more than three million gallons of mineral water every year, mostly from Germany. Its value is nearly one million dollars.

Fair Warning.

A brazen-lunged newsboy in a western city has been having a good deal of fun at the expense of the wearers of freakish skirts. His method has the simplicity of genius. As his victim goes by she is startled to hear a loud cry: "Git out of town!" Her indignant look brings a repetition of the cry, with a slight addition which does not altogether propitiate her: "Git out of town—palpers!"

Not the Right Notion.

A very sordid notion prevalent in the minds of many, is that the schools are largely to teach the boy and girl how to earn money. In my mind, much more importance should be placed upon the proper enjoyment of it than upon the mere acquisition of wealth and other worldly goods. We school teachers should aim to teach the child to appreciate the finer things in life, such as right living, beautiful surroundings both indoors and out.—A. C. Morris.

MRS. ELSIE GOELET, RECENTLY DIVORCED, MARRIES H. CLEWS

NEW YORK SOCIETY WOMAN SPENT LAST SEASON AT C. M. WILDER'S HOME AT DAYTONA BEACH.

Mrs. Elsie Goelet, recently divorced from Robert Goelet, multi-millionaire, of New York and Newport, was privately married in New York, Saturday, to Henry Clews, Jr., son of the founder of the banking house of Henry Clews & Co.

Mrs. Goelet was formerly Miss Elsie Whalen, and while her suit for divorce was pending in Rhode Island last winter, she resided at the C. M. Wilder home at Daytona Beach, with her children and a retinue of servants. She received an interlocutory decree of divorce from Goelet last March and a final decree early this fall.

Mr. Clews was divorced in 1910 from his first wife, formerly Miss Louise Hollingsworth Morris of Baltimore, who had been divorced from her first husband, Frederick Gebbard, of New York.

Don't buy diamonds for friend wife. Promise 'em to her. Men have been getting away with it for two thousand years, so you ought to be able to.

PROMINENT WINTER RESIDENTS IN THE CITY FOR BRIEF VISIT

Mrs. D. A. Blodgett arrived Saturday evening from Washington, D. C., accompanied by her son and daughters, Delos A. Blodgett and the Misses Helen and Mona Blodgett, and Mrs. C. G. Matthews, Mrs. Blodgett's sister. They are occupying Mrs. Blodgett's winter home on South Ridgewood avenue which had been put in readiness for their coming. Wednesday they will go to Cocoa to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Porcher, but will probably return to Daytona again the last of the week and remain for a week or more. To Mrs. Blodgett's Daytona friends it will be a pleasant reminder of past seasons to see the family again in their winter home, the only regret being for the briefness of their stay.

Ancient Gateways.

In days when cities were walled about for purposes of defense against an enemy, most of the masters of the people being marauders and brigands, there were real gates, by which is meant tremendous doors of solid oak built within stone walls which were indestructible by any weapons of those times. The ancient gates were built in the walls of cities at those points where the chief highways centered and on which an enemy would surely try to make his attack.

Needed Explanation.

In an English police court an officer was giving evidence against a woman accused of robbing a pawnbroker, and assured the magistrate that, on his telling the prisoner the charge on which he had taken her, she "turned from him and swallowed a bodick a pair of corsets, two brass candlesticks, a smoothing-iron, and a bel-lows!" "Nonsense! Have you lost your senses?" said the magistrate. "Your worship, tis the tickets for them, I mean, she swallowed."

French Loquacity.

There is no nation like the French. A French milliner will make a hat out of a piece of felt and nothing; and a French official will make a diplomatic episode out of nothing at all, putting into five minutes of futilly all the Gallic civilization of centuries.—Arnold Bennett in the Century Magazine.

Removing Tar Stains.

To remove tar stains rub the spot first with lard and then with soap. Leave for an hour and then wash in hot water softened with ammonia. If traces still remain, rub with turpentine.

EVERY INDICATION
FOR HEAVY SEASON
SAYS J. D. MALEY

TOURIST TRAVEL FROM NEW YORK GREATEST EVER AND CAPACITY OF TRAINS ALREADY TAXED.

That Florida will this year enjoy the most prosperous winter season in the history of the state, seems to be the general conclusion and the conclusion is borne out by the observations of J. D. Maley, who has just returned from a business trip to New York.

Mr. Maley says that every lower part and drawing room on the Atlantic Coast line train leaving New York in the morning and arriving at Daytona at 5:15—the day following,

has been sold up to and including January 6th, and many reservations have been made beyond that date.

The general opinion of business men with whom Mr. Maley came in contact during his trip is that Florida will this season entertain an unprecedented number of tourists.

The train on which Mr. Maley returned to Florida was run in two sections and he was told by transportation men that the reservations were so heavy that it is likely two sections will be run most every day while the rush of passengers southward continues.

GAY NEW YORKERS MADE
BIG HIT AT WAYCROSS

The following is part of a very complimentary notice printed in the Journal-Herald of Waycross, Ga., Wednesday of last week, pertaining to the Gay New Yorkers, part of the attractions at the New Daytona theater all this week.

"The Gay New Yorkers company made a great hit on their opening shows on Monday afternoon and night at the Dreamland theater and the indications are that Manager Chappelle will have the 'S. R. O.' sign out early every night and the attraction deserves it from the Dreamland patrons.
The opening bill 'In Gay New York,' was well staged and the comedy roles carried out to the pleasure of the patrons by two clever comedians, D. C.
Thomas, for three years with Evans,
Honey Boy minstrels, and Shadow Baker. They scored a big hit in their hotel scene as the substitute waiters.
The chorus numbers were all big ones

and were led by Nadine Wilson, Billy Boyd, Bessie Layton and D. C.
Thomas. Boyd was compelled to answer three encores when he sang his parody on 'Get Out and Get Under,' and 'That's How I Need You.'
The other numbers were 'Abbadabba,'
'Broadway Was a Pasture,' 'Girls, Girls, Girls.'

"Edward Morton, the 'Man of Iron,' previous to the show in front of the theater allowed an automobile to pass over his unprotected body and on the stage as a concluding number he performed a number of difficult feats of strength, such as bending a bar of iron with his teeth, with the back of his neck and lifting a barrel of water with his teeth and one hand and allowing it to be placed across his body
while he was lying across two chairs."

Morton's free act will be given Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

"GIVE HIM SOMETHING USEFUL"

At this time of year the stores are crowded with "things to sell." Thousands of ingenious minds have schemed for months to provide countless articles, most of them really valueless, to "get the money." Millions of people are buying gifts. It's always hard to know what to buy, and the result is that enormous sums are wasted every Christmas on worthless "presents."
Why not make up your mind to give only useful things this year? You'll find these in great variety at our store. In fact, you'll find only useful gifts, useful and desirable things that every man and boy wants, and will be pleased to get.

RICHARD COOPER DIED
SATURDAY AT HOSPITAL

After an illness of about two weeks
Richard Cooper, an employee at V.
Hatte's place, died last Saturday night at one of the local hospitals. The young man was 26 years old and had been in Daytona, off and on, for about three years. He had told Mr. Hatte and other persons in the city that he came originally from Freehold, N. J., where his people lived. However, in reply to a telegram, the mayor of Freehold wired that he was unable to locate any of the dead man's relatives. The body was interred in Pine wood cemetery this afternoon. A brief funeral service was conducted by Pastor J. H. Elder of the Methodist church, 2:30 o'clock, in the chapel of Bingham & Maley's undertaking establishment.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER

RUTH LAW'S FIRST FLIGHT OF SEASON ON CHRISTMAS DAY

WILL ATTEMPT THE "DIP OF DEATH"—RODMAN LAW, THE DARE-DEVIL, MAY COME LATER IN SEASON.

The aviation season opens on Seabreeze Beach, Christmas day, December 25th, when, it is understood, Miss Ruth Bancroft Law will give a free exhibition of daring never surpassed by any aviator. She will attempt the "Dip of Death," a feat that has cost the lives of several aviators in their attempts to accomplish it, and many other novel, hazardous and strutting performances calculated to delight and thrill the crowds that undoubtedly will be at the beach.

Miss Law is a licensed pilot of the Aero Club of America, a graduate of the Burgess-Curtis school of Marblehead, Mass., and the Wright school of Dayton, Ohio. The late Wilbur Wright, pioneer and most successful student of the science of aviation, declared Miss Law was one of the safest as well as one of the nerviest air pilots, either male or female, that he had ever met.

The exhibition to be given by Miss Law will amply repay any one who may go to the beach. An opportunity will be offered to inspect the hangar of the Wright School of Aviation near the Nautilus casino grounds.

The first person to register as a pupil at the Wright school at Seabreeze is A. H. Hoyt, of Hoyt Bros., manufacturers of automobiles, Ware, Mass.

Miss Law, during the last few seasons at Seabreeze beach, has carried as passengers many very prominent people, and has attained to the remarkable number of 2,148 flights without an accident or mishap of any kind. It is to be hoped that Miss Law, will, during the season here, repeat her great Newport, R. I., success of the summer-night flying with an electrically illuminated machine. She also contemplates having her brother, Rodman Law, make the parachute jump from her aeroplane at an altitude of 5,000 feet, and going at the rate of 60 miles per hour. This exhibition is the one that caused the most profound sensation at many of the large fairs of the east.

NEW LIGHTING PLANT UNDER CONSTRUCTION

PART OF ELECTRIC MACHINERY ORDERED BY MICHAEL SHOLTZ ALREADY HERE AND BEING INSTALLED.

Part of the machinery as ordered by Michael Sholtz for the new electric lighting plant has already been received and is now being installed at the Central of Florida Railway company's power house and car barn. The equipment necessary for the installation of one of the two units purchased was shipped by the Dela Vergne Machine company on the 14th and the remainder of the shipment, it is expected, will be here in a few days. Work is rapidly progressing on the foundations for the new engines and it is hoped that it will be not many days before the new additions will be ready. A large force of men are already at work getting things prepared for the rapid installations of the engines immediately upon their arrival.

Not What He Meant.

In a case in which a man was charged with cruelly ill-treating a horse by working it in an unfit state, a constable expressed the opinion that the animal was not capable of doing any more work on account of its age. A solicitor for the defense suggested that the horse merely required a rest. Magistrate—"Eternal rest?" Solicitor—"I do not mean that, sir."

Appeal for Help.

Ruth, who is two, was visiting her grandmother, who had some summer boarders with whom there was a little boy whom Ruth disliked very much, but who was fond of her. One day when Ruth was seated on a porch bench the little boy came up and sat down close beside her. She tried every method to remove him and finally called in desperation to her grandmother: "O, grandma, please do come and help me; I'm too much squeezed."

Knew All About It.

"How is the law made?" asked the instructor in United States history. "Oh," replied the maiden, cheerfully, "the senate has to ratify it; and then the president has to—has to veto it; and then the house of representatives has to"—she hesitated for a moment, and knitted her pretty forehead. "Oh, yes! I remember now," she said. "The house of representatives has to adjourn until the next session!" — Youth's Companion.

DAYTONA GETTING LION'S SHARE OF WINTER SOJOURNERS

HOTEL BOOKING WAY AHEAD OF PREVIOUS SEASONS—TRAINS EMPTY OUT HERE AND MIAMI. BIG HOTELS OPEN SOON.

"Daytona must be some place," remarked a Pullman conductor on the Oversea Limited to a Daytona passenger one day last week, "for a large share of the passengers we carry are bound there, and the ones that don't get off there go to Miami."

Daytona has more visitors at present than the city has ever entertained at the same time any previous seasons.

Many of the smaller hotels are already well filled and the bookings of the larger hotels are far in advance of any previous season.

The Prince George, Schmidt's hotel and a number of others that are already open, have many reservations for early January. The Gables is booked full for the early part of the month, and the Despland and Ridgewood expect a number of guests on January 1st, the opening date of both these hostleries. The Clarendon, at Seabreeze, will open January 5th with more guests than have ever before entered its portals on the opening day, and President Potter predicts that the big hotel will be unable to accommodate but a small percentage of those who apply for reservations.

All incoming telephone calls to your fax machine and answers, which is programmed to it, resulting in error.

Although the program has been successful with early entry of new doctors, it has not solved the chronic shortage of general internists. This results in the need to allow those used when an other doctor is not there. Many hospitals do weekly emergency duty assignments, and this means that only the skills of the other doctors are used.

But each one has been just one part of the use of the model of the way time being to create this space, building off the base of the upper, and then through the top.

It shows the way that the system does not have what the new will be, and eventually they are the same.

CHRISTMAS GAMES

THE children will want some new game to play after Christmas supper is over. They will all enjoy the cut-out family game, which is played in the following manner:

Get a big pile of illustrated Christmas magazines and picture papers and give each child a blunt pointed pair of scissors, a large sheet of newspaper or brown paper and a pot of paste or a packet of pins.

Then read or tell them some simple little Christmas tale—not a fairy story, but an ordinary, everyday tale of boys and girls and their fathers and mothers. As you go along stop from time to time and let the children hunt through the illustrated journals for pictures to suit the occasion.

Perhaps you will begin the game in this way:

"Once upon a time there was a little girl called Susie. She was seven years old, and she had long, curly hair. Now look through your books and find a picture of Susie."

Then the children will spend five happy minutes in finding Susie, cutting her out and fastening her at the top of the blank sheet. As the tale continues the sheet will become full of portraits of the different people whom Susie met.

It will take an hour or more to fill a sheet, and the children will be quietly and happily occupied all the time. Mothers are enthusiastic over these quiet games which hold the children's attention, and the youngsters like them too.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

An amusing Christmas game is questions and answers, which is played in the following manner:

Arrange the players in two rows, one on each side of the room. Then two must be chosen to make questions and answers. One starts at the head of one line and one at the foot of the other. One whispers to each one in his line a question, and the other whispers to each in the other line an answer.

After each one has been told what to say let the one at the head of the question line begin by asking his question audibly of the head of the answer line, and so on through the line.

Of course the one who gives the question does not know what the answers will be, and sometimes they are very funny.

Let some of the older players supply the questions and answers, and then they will not fail to make you all laugh. This is an old game and one that never fails to bring out lots of fun.

CARD MATCHING.

Cut in halves a dozen Christmas cards this number is for twenty-four players. Mix the halves thoroughly in a basket and let each player take one. Until a signal bell rings every one retains his seat, simply holding his half card in readiness. When the bell is sounded, however, each player jumps up and runs about looking for the boy or girl who holds the half matching the one in hand.

The two players first to match halves correctly and bring the card so completed to the older person in charge of the frolic win a prize. The scrambling and excitement which follow the signal bell are more easily imagined than described in this jolly Christmas game.

The Jumping Coin.

Tricks of all kinds are applauded at the Christmas party. The jumping coin is a jolly one. A coin is placed on the table, and a request is made for the coin to be handed to you in a person's hand. They are not to remove the coin from the table by using hands, feet or picking it up with the mouth. Now, this seems a puzzle, but is as simple as a h.c. All the person has to do is to place his mouth within a short distance of the coin and giving a strong blow with his breath, directing it at the coin at about an angle of forty-five degrees, causing the air to pass under the coin and propel it into the air where it is caught in the hand which is ready to receive it.

HOLLY FOR SANTA.

A frolic on the order of the ever popular donkey game is always in order for a Yuletide gathering of young folks. Vary the picture a little to suit the occasion and offer a prize to add zest to the struggle. If the shops are not at hand to offer inspiration for the new version of this contest, any one with some little artistic skill can draw a picture of Santa Claus on a square of muslin and color with tinted chalks.

The youngsters are blindfolded one by one and are sent to pin a spray of holly in Santa's hand. It is, of course, the one who comes nearest to accomplishing this feat who wins the prize—a copy of some popular juvenile story. The children who stick their holly sprays farthest away from the mark may be condemned to perform some funny stunts. For instance, they may draw imaginary reindeer in the air with the index finger in the presence of the rest of the company.

An amusing Christmas trick is to make a small star upon the wall with a piece of white chalk. One by one the players kneel upon the floor at a distance of about two feet from the wall and with arms folded behind the back bend forward and try to kiss the mark. With a tall player the distance might have to be a little greater, but with players of an average height two feet from the wall will make it very difficult to succeed and the arms must on no account be unfolded. Prizes may be awarded successful players.

IVY AND HOLLY.

Very little people will enjoy a rimed pastime called ivy and holly. Chairs are arranged in two rows, and the children sit facing each other. One youngster has his back to some adventure as "Holly and Ivy went out to a party."

The child sitting opposite must complete the line with another couplet, for instance, "Holly and Ivy came back hale and hearty."

Indeed, there is no reason why the pastime should be entirely relegated to the kindergarten. On account of the rapidity with which the rhymes must be thought up the older boys and girls will find it amusing too.

For a pretty search game which young children as well as the school going boys and girls would enjoy at Christmas parties, cut several hundred little holly leaves from green tinted paper and hide them in the festive rooms.

At a given signal the young people scamp off in search of these symbols of the season. The youngster finding the greatest number of them in the ten minutes allowed for the search should receive some inexpensive prize decorated with a design representing holly.

HOLLY BERRY CONTEST.

A contest adapted for children of any age can be played with the loose berries which drop from the holly when the Christmas greens are swung into place. Gather up the little red fruit, and when the game is to be played give each child a dozen berries, a glass tumbler and two match sticks.

The youngsters should be seated around a large table. When the signal is given each child begins to lift his holly berries with the dead matches and to drop them into his tumbler.

The berries must not be touched with one's fingers under penalty of a "foul." The boy or girl first to call out "All in" that is, that all his holly fruit has been dropped in the glass—is the prize winner.

Had the Wrong Place.

Automobilist (calling garage after an accident): "I guess you will have to send for me. I have turned turtle." Attendant: "Say, this is the garage; you want the aquarium."—Telephone News.

Training.

"I say, old man," inquired Balbriggan: "what are you putting those toothpicks down your back for?" "Just getting in training," replied Flannelly, "to wear my flannels, old fellow."
